About Jericho Project

Inspired by the belief that transformation can occur in every individual, Jericho Project was founded in 1983 to help New York City address and end homelessness among men, women, and families. Jericho Project steadfastly works to advance its mission by creating a community that inspires individual change, fosters sustainable independence, and motivates men and women to reach their greatest potential.

In its 33-year history, Jericho has grown from its genesis as a small housing program to a comprehensive agency providing over 400 units of supportive housing, as well as significant life-changing services to over 2,000 homeless and at-risk adults and children throughout New York City.

About the Position

Jericho Project is seeking a driven and creative individual to join the Supportive Services for Veteran Families (SSVF) Program as the Housing Specialist. The individual in this position will be responsible for assisting very low-income veterans with identifying and obtaining safe and affordable housing opportunities. The incumbent will be responsible for developing and cultivating housing leads and resources through community agencies, landlords and real estate brokers willing to accept program participants with little or no income. The Housing Specialist will also work with immediate veteran family members, the VA, and NYCHA to ensure housing is secured and maintained in a timely and efficient manner.

Responsibilities:

- Conduct housing intakes and assessments with veterans referred from the Case Manager and other staff to assess housing needs and preferences.
- Assist veterans in completing landlord and property management housing applications, including helping to secure needed documentation and accompanying veterans to housing briefings.
- Provide hands-on assistance to enable veteran to find suitable housing, including accompanying veterans to apartment viewings and conducting neighborhood research throughout NYC and surrounding areas.
- Advocate on behalf of the veterans with landlords and brokers to overcome any issues or challenges to securing suitable housing.
- Assist with securing resources for security deposit, broker's fees, moving expenses, bedding, and household items.
- Writing Temporary Financial Assistance (TFA) requests for SSVF short-term subsidies for security deposit, broker's fees, moving expenses, bedding, and household items and ensuring that all required supporting documentation is present in the request.

- Develop and cultivate relationships with community resources, landlords and real estate agencies.
- Collaborate as a member of the larger Jericho Project team and serve as a housing resource expert as needed.
- Serve as point-of-contact for landlords; work with case manager and client to resolve issues affecting client's ability to maintain housing and positive landlord/tenant relationship
- Identify apartments, landlords and real estate agencies as referral resources for veterans and performs housing inspections for relocations into new units throughout NYC and surrounding areas.
- Assist clients with referrals and applications for housing vouchers including SEPS, LINC, City FEPS, HPD, and NYCHA.
- Assist clients with approved 2010es access supportive housing by making housing referrals, contacting providers, and attending housing interviews.
- Help to conduct orientation sessions with new participants to explain housing rules and regulations and lease obligations, as well as housing quality standards and housing assistance policies.
- Computes housing assistance payments, tenant rental amounts, utility reimbursements, and rent increases in order to satisfy program guidelines and landlord requests using knowledge of program regulations.
- Performs re-examinations, interim interviews and verifies income to determine and maintain eligibility with federal and city guidelines and regulations;
- Maintains and inputs case notes in AWARDS to reflect housing services provided in a timely manner.
- Maintains and updates tenant information into computer database.
- Prepares monthly statistical reports and other data as mandated.

Qualifications:

- Associate's or Bachelor's degree preferred, but will consider extensive experience in lieu of education.
- 2-3 years relevant experience preferred.
- Ability to work independently and maximize time while conducting field work.
- Experience in social and economic problems related to housing needs for those in a lower income bracket.
- Demonstrated knowledge of challenges faced by special populations, including mental health disabilities, low income and homelessness; experience working in a multi-racial, low-income community preferred.
- Demonstrated interpersonal flexibility, teamwork, customer service aptitude and excellent oral and written communication skills.
- Knowledge of housing subsidies, rules, regulations, and affordable housing industry in NYC strongly preferred.
- Strong organizational and multi-tasking capability, proven ability to achieve results.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite required.
- The successful applicant will be required to complete a background check.
